COVID-19:

Important Changes to Ryan White

Part B: Applications

IDPH is still processing assessments for Medication and Premium assistance.

You can apply or check on status of your application here:
https://iladap.providecm.net

They are not expecting any supply or medication shortages.

ADAP IDPH hotline at 800-825-3518 is down, but you can email questions to:
dph.adapfax@illinois.gov

Are you currently receiving medication or premium assistance (ADAP)?

Yes

No

You don't need to re-apply!

If your eligibility is set to expire in April/May- it will be extended for 4 months

If your active eligibility lapsed before February 1st and you are having issues accessing medications or covering insurance premiums, you must apply to get your eligibility back.

Your most recent reapplication due date:
February 29, 2020
March 31, 2020
April 30, 2020
May 31, 2020

Your new reapplication due date (can begin 60 days prior):
October 31, 2020
September 30, 2020
October 31, 2020
November 30, 2020

IDPH recommends not making any life event updates on the marketplace if you are receiving premium assistance during the pandemic!

Part B: Viral Load

IDPH is now accepting viral load results taken within 9 months (instead of 6) and MAP/PAP assessments expiring at the end of March are extended for 60 days. IDPH will evaluate whether further extensions are necessary in the future.

Part B: Telehealth

Ryan White Part B funds can help with telehealth costs related to status. Talk with your case-manager or AFC.
